

Spiritual Heroine!

2 Kings 5

Naaman: Commander of the Syrian Army (valiant soldier, had leprosy)

Israeli slave girl (taken captive, serves Naaman's wife)

2 Kings (Syria and Israel)

One Man of God “he will know there is a prophet in Israel”

speaking in faith

She said to her mistress

How do we start conversations with the world?

Does our faith show up enough they would act on what we say?

If only...

What about the kings?

I'm pretty sure the king of Syria did not have faith in the God of Abraham

I'm not sure the king of Israel does either, at least not very effective.

Does he really not know about the prophet?

Is the prophet even an option?

the simplicity of obedience

Notice that Elisha doesn't even come out to see Naaman (what statement does that make?)

For the second time Naaman proves that he is a humble man of power!

For us?

Do we speak from our faith?

Do we listen to the right people? (Seems as if the servants are the wise ones)

Was Naaman truly a convert to Jehovah?

“Go in peace”
